

SHER

VANCOUVER

2018 – 2019
Sponsorship Kit

Sher Vancouver is a social, cultural and support organization for LGBTQ South Asians and their friends, families and allies.

By helping to inform, educate and bring about more acceptance and cross-cultural understanding surrounding LGBTQ issues including bullying, racism, homophobia and transphobia within the South Asian and broader community, Sher Vancouver strives to reduce the alienation, depression and suicidal ideation of people who are dealing with sexuality, gender and coming-out.

Sponsors become a part of the movement to help alienated and vulnerable members of our community—especially youth.

My Name Was January:

a social justice documentary film produced by Sher Vancouver. Close to thirty non-profit, government and union sponsors have come on board to support the film about Sher Vancouver's social coordinator January Marie Lapuz, who was tragically murdered in 2012

Youth group for 16 to 30 year
olds has 15 to 25 members at
every monthly meeting

12 new immigrants and refugees

paired up with a Sher Vancouver member in 2016
to help them orient the city
and to obtain services,
support and mentorship

Sher Vancouver's audience is growing across multiple platforms with an engaged youth-oriented demographic across Metro-Vancouver especially in Surrey and Vancouver.
